

INHERITED COLORECTAL CANCER

ST MARK'S HOSPITAL

THURSDAY 15TH JANUARY, 2015

Learning Objectives

On completion of this course attendees will:

- Appreciate the contribution of inheritance to colorectal cancer
- Be able to assess family history and associated risk
- Understand how to manage individuals at moderate risk of colorectal cancer
- Understand the basic features and management of polyposis syndromes
- Understand the diagnosis and management of Lynch syndrome

Target Audience

- All members of the colorectal cancer MDT (nurse specialists, oncologists, gastroenterologists, colorectal surgeons, pathologists)
- Geneticists, genetics counsellors

Learning Style

Lectures and case discussions

St Mark's Hospital
Watford Road
Harrow
Middlesex
HA1 3UJ

Email: nwlh-tr.StMarksAcademicInstitute@nhs.net
Tel: 020 8235 4046/8 Fax: 020 8235 4039
Web: www.stmarkshospital.org.uk